

PRECISION FLYING WITH PAUL MARSHALL

Learn more about formation flying and precision flight-inspired careers.

This event is free and open to all! Free parking, no admission, no registration.

Wednesday
October 14

7 PM – 9 PM
2 Hours

Reid-Hillview Airport
Terminal Building

Paul Marshall is a formation pilot with 690 hours of flying time in formation

(3030 hours total flight experience) during the past 23 years, with 443 flights as lead pilot. He learned formation with the Bonanzas to Oshkosh group, and subsequently with Formation Flying Incorporated, where he held Wing and Lead cards. He has flown in formation at Oshkosh

AirVenture, with the NorCal Beech Boys, with the Memorial Squadron, and with the West Coast Ravens. You have seen him at local airport days around northern California, including San Martin, Reid Hillview, and Palo Alto airports.

LEARN MORE TO EARN MORE

Sponsored by Scouting America's Aviation Career Explorer Post 747 | www.post747.org